

Coming Home

Original Composition by Paul G. Sykes (2020)

♩ = 100 Reverently

When each day is filled with laugh - ter, and each gift a trea - sure bound with love and fam' - ly, we are taught to live in days when life is chal - lenced, there are times when life feels

4

dear; may we pause and grasp each mo - ment, cher-ish days through - out the peace; when we trust each one an - oth - er, harsh-ness quick - ly turns to stressed; then we'll gath - er all that we've learned, mak-ing life the best of 8

year. As we val - ue eve - ry friendship, as we learn to grow and give; may each fleece. Let us learn to share our tal - ent, let us give and not just loan; ask-ing best. We'll give all to make things bet - ter, we'll take on - ly what we own; let us

16

1-2 TAG
3.

gift be-come a mem'-ry, held in heart each day we live. We are on - ly of each oth - er, give the gift of com-ing home. There are share our love with oth - ers, bringing joy when com-ing 1-2 3. home. Let us share our love with oth - ers, bring - ing joy when com - ing home.

20

D
A A

T
A
B