

Roses in Springtime

Patsy Elaine Hitt Callender

Paul G. Sykes

♩ = 180

They say there are flow - ers that bloom in the spring-time a clus - ter of
One day, we will rest in a calm peace - ful slum - ber, with flow - ers a -

D
A
A

T
A B ro - ses as sweet as can be. Then rain that comes soft, may en - hance its bove and a si - lence be - low. While flow - ers will grow, with a scent so

D
A
A

T
A B

love - li - ness, nev - er a - gain the sweet flow - ers we see. Soon there will be an - de - light - ful, ro - ses will grow and so quick - ly will fade. Ro - ses like life grow

D
A
A

T
A B oth - er ap - pear - ing, burst - ing with life, new ro - ses are blooming. God gives us short - ly in pass - ing, soft pet - als soft, bright col - ors are shad - ed. Time to en -

D
A
A

T
A B

flow - ers that col - or springtime the beau - ti - ful flow - ers that bloom there for me.
joy the bright signs al - lur - ing, the beau - ti - ful flow - ers that bloom there for me.

D
A
A

T
A B