

GENTLY JOHNNY, MY JINGALO

English traditional

TablEdited by James Kuder
For Susan

I put my hand all in her own, Fair maid is a li - ly, O! She said, "If you love me a - lone, Come to me qui - et - ly,

Do not do me in - jur - y, Gent - ly, Joh-n ny my Jing - a - lo."

1) I put my hand all in her own, Fair maid is a lily, O!
She said, "If you love me alone,
Come to me, quietly. Do not do me injury,
Gently, Johnny, my Jingalo."

2) I said, "You know I love you, dear." Fair maid is a lily, O!
She whispered softly in my ear,
"Come to me...."

- 3) I put my arm around her waist, Fair maid is a lily, O!
She laughed and turned away her face.
Come to me....
- 4) I kissed her lips like rubies red, Fair maid is a lily, O!
She blushed, then tenderly she said,
"Come to me...."
- 5) I slipped a ring all in her hand, Fair maid is a lily, O!
She said, "The parson's near at hand.
Come to me...."
- 6) I took her to the church next day, Fair maid is a lily, O!
The birds did sing and she did say,
"Come to me..."
